

POLICY MANUAL

MULTIPLE DISTRICT N

ADOPTED MAY 2008

TO THE LIONS / USERS OF THIS MANUAL:

This Multiple District N "Policy Manual" is designed to be a guideline for the officers of the Multiple District and its Lions. This Manual does not supersede the Constitution and By-Laws of our Multiple District nor is it meant to change or amend it.

Hopefully, this Manual will prove to be a valuable asset for the officers of our Multiple District N. It is hoped that it will give the necessary information so that the business of our Multiple District will be conducted more efficiently and LIONISM will be strengthened.

Obviously, this Manual will have to be amended from time to time to reflect our needs and changes which will take place in our Multiple District.

This document is meant to be gender neutral.

This Multiple District Manual, which has been forged from the Multiple District 41 policy manual, may be the cornerstone of what will become a complete valuable guide in the management of our Multiple District.

Suggestions for its betterment are welcomed and should be passed to the Multiple District Council.

APPENDIX "A"
MULTIPLE DISTRICT N
PROTOCOL

COMMENTS: This would supplement what is presently in the Policy Manual so that it would clearly explain the responsibility relative to speakers visiting our Multiple.

Protocol – among nations and among people—is an official expression of good manners. The courtesy we show each other in our everyday lives affects our attitudes, our work and, in turn, how we view our selves as human beings.

Protocol is a multi-faceted word.

Protocol means respect for position. It also means using diplomacy and tact in your relations with others. Protocol is dictionary–defined as a code of diplomatic etiquette and precedence. It is all these rolled into one single word.

A well-organized and problem–free experience will be guaranteed if the correct use of protocol is recognized and practiced.

The guidelines described as follows are intended to aid in the following proper protocol on District and Multiple District levels and in the successful reception of visiting Lion officials.

INVITATION

An official invitation (directly or indirectly) by a District Governor, Council Chair or a current or Past Director on behalf of the District or Multiple, is the first step towards a visit by an International Officer. That first step is vitally important, however, since the success of his/her visit may hinge upon the information provided to International Headquarters.

All invitations for a speaker on the International level must be made on a Speaker Request Form and sent to the Protocol and Itineraries Department at International headquarters.

An invitation to an International President should be extended at least a year in advance. In the case of an Officer or Director, the necessary time limit is six months or preferably more.

An International Officer, Director or Past President may be invited to attend authorized meetings subject to the following conditions:

1. All requests for speakers shall be made through, and shall be honored only when submitted by, a current District Governor or Chair of the Multiple District Council. Explanation of this procedure shall be given to all others requesting speaker assignments.
2. A specific date shall be sent and an alternate should be shown.
3. Each request for a speaker for a conference or a convention shall be accompanied by a proposed schedule of events which shall provide for an open discussion period with the International speaker.

FACTS TO INCLUDE ON THE SPEAKER REQUEST FORM

The following facts shall be included on the Speaker Request Form:

1. The name of the hotel in which reservations have been made or will be made for the International representative. Also include the address, email address and telephone numbers since it is vital that he be accessible at all times.
2. The exact time the event will begin and the approximate time it will conclude. This information is needed in order to arrange proper transportation.
3. The type of dress code that will be required—whether formal, informal long dress, cocktail dress, white or black tuxedo, etc.
4. Whether plans have been made to hold a press conference or interview with the media. The Protocol and Itineraries Department will send photographs and a biographical sketch prior to the arrival of an Officer or Director.
5. If the International representative's spouse is accompanying him/her, he/she will need to know what activities have been planned for him/her and what type of attire will be needed.

YOUR SPEAKER HAS BEEN ASSIGNED

As soon as you have been advised by Lions International that a speaker has been assigned for your event, a letter should be sent immediately to the invited guest, thanking him/her for their acceptance of the speaking engagement and furnishing him/her with pertinent information contained in Items 1 through 5 above. Any other information that may be deemed important and helpful to the speaker should also be furnished in such correspondence. Copies of all correspondence with the International Officer or Director should be sent to the International Office.

YOUR SPEAKER ARRIVES

If the International Officer or Director is traveling by airline or train, arrangements should be made to have a delegation of prominent Lions on hand to greet him/her on arrival.

Also you might wish to invite the Mayor and other leading citizens to help welcome an honored guest to your city.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the responsibility of the hosts to arrange the hotel accommodations for the visiting Officer or Director prior to his/her arrival. Comfortable accommodations should be provided, but at the same time, consideration should be given to the cost of the hotel room or suite.

Thoughtful gestures may include arranging to have morning or evening newspapers sent to the guest's room or perhaps having liquor, soda, candy, flowers or a small basket of fruit delivered.

OFFICIAL LION ESCORT

One customary courtesy that should never be overlooked is designating someone who will escort the guest to and from planned activities during his/her stay. The escort should be an ID, PID, CC, PCC, DG or PDG as available.

If the guest is accompanied by his wife, it is recommended that a committee of members' wives be appointed to make her visit enjoyable and entertain her while her husband is attending to his official Lion duties. She, too, should be provided with an escort to accompany her to all ladies functions—usually the wife of the escort of the speaker, if available.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS AND APPOINTMENTS

It is suggested that upon the guest's arrival, you give him a list of the scheduled events and possible appointments; ask if these are agreeable and convenient for him, and make such changes as he may suggest. Consideration should be given to the fact that he will very probably welcome a period of relaxation between the time of his arrival and the scheduled meetings, particularly if he is on an extended itinerary.

PUBLICITY

With his consent, it is a good plan to have members of the press, radio and television interview the visiting Officer or Director. If such an interview is arranged, close cooperation should be given press photographers to help them obtain good photographs. When a press photographer is not available, you may wish to supply the newspaper with photographs taken by a qualified member of the Club or District, or photographs, newspaper articles and biographical sketches of the visiting Officer or Director which are sent in advance to the host Club or District by the International Office.

Remember, such favorable publicity for your Club, District and International Association can be obtained in this manner.

THE EVENT

The guest has arrived; he has been officially welcomed to your city and is comfortably resting in his hotel room. The important event he's been invited to is coming up soon, and you will want everything to go smoothly, so well in fact, that it will remain a happy memory for everyone involved.

Here are some tips that will contribute to the success of the program:

1. Try to arrange your visiting Officer's or Director's schedule so that he will arrive at the main meeting, dinner or convention session a short time before the event begins.
2. Whether your guest is an International Officer, Director or District Governor, his entrance should be marked with enthusiasm. If the audience is seated, members should rise and applaud him as he makes his way to the head table.
3. If a reception is planned just prior to the evening banquet meeting, it is suggested that the guest be escorted to the reception a short time prior to the time it is scheduled to end. This will allow sufficient time for him to meet and greet Lion dignitaries, and yet not over-tire him before the banquet begins.
4. If a meal is included in the festivities, the guest should of course, be served first. If the dinner is buffet-style, the head table should lead the line.
5. The flag of the country of the International Officer or Director should be displayed, if possible.

6. The guest's National Anthem should be played. (The Protocol and Itineraries Department will provide a cassette recording of an International Officer's National Anthem when he is visiting a country other than his own.)
7. Avoid lengthy introductions. The audience is more interested in hearing what the speaker has to say, and will be eager for the talk to begin. Two or three minutes should be all that is needed to introduce your guest of honor. Be sure to include the following in the introduction:
 - The speaker's name
 - His position in Lionism
 - His business or profession
 - Where he lives
 - His/her background in Lionism
8. Every effort should be made to give the guest speaker the best spot on the program so that the audience will be in a receptive mood. Schedule your visitor to speak around 8:30 to 9:00 PM. A speaker is at a tremendous disadvantage if called on at a time when the audience is tired from too many musical numbers, entertainment features or is anxious to begin dancing. Although it is a good idea to save the guest speaker for last so that the audience will go away with his message fresh in their minds, it is not a good idea if it takes place after the audience is worn out. Remember, it is a breach of Lions' etiquette to introduce a Lion speaker after 10:00 p.m. Therefore, if the meeting is running late, re-arrange the program as it goes along, always keeping in mind the necessity of getting to your speaker on time.
9. If the program calls for the presentation of a token of appreciation to your guest speaker, the best time to present it would be directly after his/her speech. The appropriate responding remarks should be made at this time, and given by the most prominent Lion official in attendance.

DISPLAYING THE FLAG

No other flag or pennant should be placed above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the host country.

When displayed from a staff on a speakers platform, in a hall, public auditorium or behind a head table, the flag of the host country should occupy the position of honor and be placed at the speaker's right as he/she faces the audience. If only one other flag, banner or pennant is displayed on the platform, it should be placed at the speaker's left.

If more than one other flag, banner or pennant is displayed in a hall, speakers platform, public auditorium or behind a head table, they should be displayed equally spaced, in the following order:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Flag of the Host Country | - Extreme right of speakers stand |
| 2. Flag of Other Nation | - Left of Host Country's Flag |
| 3. State or Province Flag | - Left of Other Nation's Flag |
| 4. Club or District Banner | - Left of State or Province Flag |

When flags of two or more nations and/or provinces are displayed, they are to be on staffs of the same height. The flags should be of approximately equal size.

If another past or present International Officer or Director is present, the flag of his/her country should be procured and placed to the left of the flag of the honored guest or principle speaker.

When the flag of the Host Country is displayed from a staff elsewhere than on a platform or behind the head table, it should be placed in the position of honor at the right of the audience as they face the platform. Any other flag so displayed shall be placed on the left of the audience as they face the platform.

When a flag is displayed otherwise than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat.

When used on a speakers platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker.

The flag of the Host Country, when displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, should be on the right, the flags own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

The flag of the Host Country should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of countries, states, provinces or Lion banners are grouped and displayed from staffs.

The flag should never be used as a drapery of any sort whatsoever, never festooned, drawn back nor up in folds, but always allowed to fall free.

The flag should never be used to decorate a speakers platform or rostrum or for decoration in general.

IN CONCLUSION

The event to which you have channeled so much of your time and energy is complete. The evening has been a great success. Yet, there are additional considerations which remain to be directed to your guest.

It is extremely important to arrange departure transportation for your International representative. An International President, Officer or Director must be escorted to the airport. Punctuality is often crucial since flight connections are customarily intricate and precise.

During the week following the event, send a note of thanks to your guest and to all other Lions (and non Lions) who helped to make the event a success!

Necrology Service

Mission Objective: To remember Lions, Lionesses & Leos who have departed this earthly life, and to give praise and celebration for their good works through Lionism.

Our challenge: to re-dedicate ourselves to continue good deeds in voluntary service to others.

It's the responsibility of the Convention Chair to appoint a Necrology Chairperson who has a keen interest in this topic, is open minded, knowledgeable and may have some insight in Service planning. This person should be a member of Convention committee.

The chair of Necrology Service selects at least two other members for Committee, one of whom may be a Priest/Minister.

Start early to organize planning eg. twelve months in advance.

If you wish the place for service may be a church building near Convention Hotel. Book early and talk with the Priest/Minister in charge. Explain the type of service needed.

Ask the Minister/Priest for suggestions to show that he (she) needs to be part of it. Do Model outline and share with Minister/Priest.

If the place to worship is the hotel, make sure it can accommodate approximately 500 people. Also invite a Minister/Priest to lead the service.

Content of Service:

- (A) Seek out models from services in your own District or other Districts.
- (b) Invite Minister/Priest to do homily and lead in Service.
