Lions Clubs International Code of Ethics

TO SHOW my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

TO SEEK success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

WHENEVER a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

TO AID others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE CAREFUL with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not to destroy.

You keep the district's leadership team informed of the clubs' activities and share concerns about any of the clubs with the team. You also encourage clubs to support district programs and activities.

The district governor recognizes your leadership skills. As a leader of the zone, you are to support quality clubs within the zone. These clubs should understand their purpose in the association, function within the association's constitution and policies, know they are part of the district team and strive for excellence and continuous growth.

THE DISTRICT CABINET

It is important that you understand the purpose of the district cabinet, and how you can work with this team to maintain healthy clubs in the district.

The zone chairperson shares the recommendations with the district governor and district cabinet. The committee meets at least three times annually. A fourth meeting, if held, could be an occasion to honor present or past club officers. Advisory committee meetings are reported to the district governor using the DA-ZCM Form. A sample form is located at the end of this manual.

The committee meetings provide an opportunity for the zone chairperson to promote and encourage unity among clubs in the zone. The clubs exchange ideas about club operations and management during the meetings as well as projects, activities and fundraisers.

WORKING WITH CLUBS

Determine the specific needs of each club by visiting the clubs in the zone, at least once, during the year. Listen attentively to the concerns of the members and give constructive advice. Document your findings and the advice given to the clubs to evaluate the progress of each club.

- Have few or no members interested in becoming leaders within the club
- Do not have representation at district, region or zone functions

- Well-organized board of directors and committees
- A good membership growth and development program with prompt inductions
- A major service activity and a major fundraising project with community involvement and contributions
- An active leadership development plan
- Good public relations programs both within the club and in the community
- An agenda to attend and participate in zone, region, district, multiple district and international meetings

Speak to clubs about the resources available to increase membership and develop leaders as well as recognize the clubs' achievements during your visit. Be prepared to be a motivator, counselor and communicator while visiting clubs.

As a motivator, a zone chairperson:

- Recognizes clubs' successful community service projects and public relations events
- Encourages team spirit and unity among club members

- Listens to the concerns of the clubs
- Offers potential resolutions to misunderstandings and problems within clubs
- Provides guidance to status quo clubs and clubs in financial suspension
- Offers direction to clubs that are experiencing difficulties
- Encourages strong successful clubs to set higher goals

RESOURCES TO ASSIST CLUBS

LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL WEB SITE, located at www.lionsclubs.org, is an essential tool for clubs. The site offers basic information about the association's programs, contact information and e-mail links to International Headquarters, various directories and an online Club Supplies section. Many publications, forms and reports can be downloaded from this site. The Club Resource Center on the website serves as a central depository of information and forms that club officers will need throughout their year. The District Resource Center has similar information for district level officers.

One resource, the Club Excellence Process, is a workshop program dedicated to club improvement. A club that agrees to participate in the CEP will be guided by a facilitator through four steps of approximately an hour each. A participating club will look at their community's needs, take a survey on their membership experience, use resources and develop action plans.

ONLINE MEMBERSHIP REPORTS. The Web site also offers a unique membership reporting tool enabling club officers to view and update their club membership records. By using this tool an officer is able to add a new member, drop an existing member, reinstate a member, and transfer a member from another club. Additionally, it enables a club officer to print membership cards, club rosters, and to update members' personal information such as address, telephone number, fax number, e-mail address, etc. Clubs can update their club officers and view and update information related to a club branch affiliated with their club. To access and enter information, passwords will be used by club presidents, secretaries and treasurers. An officer must have a unique email address in their membership record to be able to request or create a password.

CLUB PASSWORDS: Registered club officers each may select a password to submit the monthly membership reports for their term. Starting in 2011-12 fiscal year, club officers will be able to choose their own password. Each officer must be registered with LCI with a unique email address. Therefore it is very important that clubs register their new officers in a timely manner, either online or with the PU 101 form, and that they include an email address for each officer. If a club reports only one shared email address for all the club officers, they will not have access to online reports. (Remember during July, the prior year's passwords will expire.)

Monthly service activity reporting is also completed on the WMMR web site. Clubs can also view a summary of their reported service activities and search other club or district service activities that have been shared. Club service goals can be established and track progress toward those goals.

CLUB HEALTH ASSESSMENT – The Club Health Assessment is sent to the district team the second week of each month and includes information on membership, reporting, payments and donations in one comprehensive report. Problem areas appear in red. Areas where the clubs have demonstrated outstanding progress appear in green. The report is a critical tool for allowing the district team to better monitor club progress.

STANDARD FORM LIONS CLUB CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS (LA-2), is the club's primary governing guidelines. This document outlines the structure, duties and responsibilities of Lions clubs and officers, and is the ultimate guide for club management. It is available on the Web site at <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/common/pdfs/la2.pdf>

CLUB OFFICERS MANUAL (LA-15), provides club officers basic information regarding their responsibilities and duties. Club officers can review and download the manual from the Club Resource Center on the association's Web site. <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/resources/publications/resources-pub-clubadmin.php>

PERIODICALS include LION Magazine, which each Lions club member receives. Lions Newswire, the monthly newsletter on the association's Web site, keeps members throughout the world informed of important events as well and association policy changes and news of current Lions events and activities. Members can read Lions Newswire each month at <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/online-community/news-news-online.php>

THE HEALTHY CLUB TOOLBOX offers guidance to clubs in the areas of club management, membership development, service activities and public relations. These materials are accessible from the Club Resource Center on the association's Web site.

THE LIONS LEADERSHIP RESOURCE CENTER, accessible via the association's Web site, offers easy access to leadership development tools and resources to nurture and develop leadership skills among Lions. Club members can visit the center at <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/leadership-development/index.php>

HOW ARE YOUR RATINGS (ME-15B) is accessible on the association's Web site. This resource contains a series of questions that will help clubs determine their strengths and weaknesses. Clubs can develop a plan to improve themselves based on the results of this questionnaire.

E-CLUBHOUSE

Lions clubs across the world can find a new home on the Internet with the e-Clubhouse. The e-Clubhouse enables clubs to build a free Web site and enhance their presence on the Web by using fill-in-the-blank fields and pre-formatted templates to make giving clubs a polished and tech savvy appearance easy. The e-Clubhouse also provides consistency with the Lions branding while enabling clubs to preserve their individuality. The site includes a club calendar, club projects, photo gallery and contact us page to help tell others about their Lions club. Up to five more pages can be added. It's up to the club to key in information and to determine how it will be used for their club. Encourage clubs to develop their own web presence with the e-Clubhouse. Go to <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/managing-a-club/e-clubhouse.php>

COMMUNICATING WITH CLUBS

Zone chairpersons keep clubs in the zone informed of zone, district, multiple district and international events and training opportunities. Zone chairpersons utilize the communication method that is most effective. Advance publicity of events results in good club participation at the events. Communication with clubs is achieved by:

- Issuing a monthly calendar of events
- Providing a calendar of events at each District Governor's Advisory Committee meeting
- Providing important dates in the district newsletter
- Sending electronic reminders to club officers
- Implementing other communication methods that have proven to be effective

Zone, district, multiple district and international events and training opportunities are:

- The zone chairperson's and the district governor's visit to a club
- District Governor's Advisory Committee meetings
- District, multiple district and international conventions
- Club officers' orientation
- Other special events clubs should attend

Responding to club's questions and concerns promptly and effectively is an important component of good communication with clubs. Zone chairpersons often become a motivator or counselor when responding to a club's concerns.

RECOGNIZING ACHIEVEMENTS

Volunteers deserve recognition as individuals or groups. It makes them feel appreciated. Recognition motivates volunteers and increases their self-confidence. Recognition might be a certificate, pin, banner or other tangible object or a simple thank you, buying lunch for an individual or group, the volunteer's or club's name in media print, or other informal method of recognition. Recognition should be appropriate, timely, and genuine. Recognition benefits the recipient, the club and the community.

The Art of Recognition publication, available from the Web site <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/resources/publications/resources-public-lead.php> , offers a variety of ideas on how to recognize achievement.

The association offers a variety of awards for individuals or clubs. The Web site provides information about program and activity awards. The information is found at: <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/resources/publications/resources-public-act.php>

The Club Excellence Award recognizes the achievements of the president and the club leadership team. Zone chairpersons should be familiar with the award criteria and promote the award to clubs. This award application is on the LCI web site.

The District Governor Team Excellence Award recognizes the district governor teams that meet the criteria of excellence in areas of service, membership growth, communications, leadership development and club development. For the districts that receive the award, the district governor will determine which members of the team are most deserving of special recognition. In order to nominate zone or region chairperson for recognition, the district governor must have previously entered information to identify the current region and zone chairpersons using the WMMR web site.

Club Rebuilding Award – The new Club Rebuilding Award recognizes Lions who were instrumental in rebuilding an existing club with fewer than 15 members, or bring a canceled or status quo club back to active and viable status. To qualify, the district must submit a completed Club Rebuilding Award Nomination Form. The award cannot be awarded to the district governor. To be eligible the club must have 20 or more members, be in good standing, have initiated a new service project, and remained active for 12 months.

Award applications are available on the association's Web site at the following location:
<http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/member-center/resources/publications/resources-publicadmin.php>

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

STATUS QUO CLUBS – Monitoring the general health of Lions clubs in the zone, providing assistance to clubs to prevent clubs from going into status quo, and reactivating clubs in status quo are important responsibilities of the zone chairperson.

Status quo is a temporary suspension of the charter, rights, privileges, and obligations of a Lions club. There are two types of status quo: regular and protective. Reasons a district governor may recommend regular status quo include:

- 1) Failure to comply with the purposes of the association, or conduct unbecoming a Lions club, such as failure to solve club disputes or involvement in litigation
- 2) Failure to fulfill any obligations of a chartered Lions club, such as failure to hold club meetings regularly, or failure to submit the Monthly Membership Report for three or more consecutive months
- 3) Failure to pay district or multiple district dues
- 4) Non-existing
- 5) Disbanding
- 6) Club merger

A Lions club may be placed in protective status quo when the country or area of the Lions club is experiencing:

- 1) War or civil insurgency
- 2) Political unrest
- 3) Natural disasters
- 4) Other special circumstances which prevent a Lions club from functioning normally.

A Lions club may stay in protective status quo for an initial period of 90 days, plus an additional 180 days if warranted. Unlike cases of regular status quo, a protective status quo club shall be allowed to function normally, but will not be billed for payment of district, multiple district, and international dues while in status quo and shall not submit monthly membership and activity reports. After a club is reactivated, the amount of back dues owed is determined.

When a district governor feels it would be in the best interest of the club to be placed in regular status quo, he/she makes such recommendation to headquarters before December 31. Requests for protective status quo may be made at any time. The recommendation form must be signed by the governor, vice district governors, and zone chairperson. When the club is ready to be released from status quo, the district governor must submit a Reactivation Report that is signed by the zone chairperson and the district governor team.

While a club remains in status quo, the zone chairperson should offer support and encouragement to club members by:

- Conducting meetings to discuss the future of the club and ways to reorganize the club
- Making sure the club maintains communication with the district governor team

- Encouraging the club to pay any outstanding balance, if a debt exists
- Assisting the club members to recruit new members aggressively if it is confronting membership problems

At the same time, the zone chairperson must make sure that a regular status quo club is not involved in the following activities. **

- Conducting service or fundraising activities
- Participating in district or multiple district functions and seminars
- Endorsing or nominating a candidate for district, multiple district and international office
- Participating in any voting procedures outside of the club
- Submitting monthly membership and activity report
- Sponsoring new clubs, including Leo and Lioness clubs

REACTIVATION OF STATUS QUO CLUB – Clubs can be released from status quo upon completing the following:

- Resolve the problem that lead to being placed on status quo
- Pay all outstanding balance in the club account and submit proof of payment to headquarters
- Have a minimum of ten members

The governor officially requests the club be returned to good standing when these conditions are met by submitting a Reactivation Report to LCI, District & Club Administration Division. Once the club has received notification that the Reactivation Report has been processed, a club's president, secretary and treasurer may have WMMR passwords.

FINANCIAL SUSPENSION OF CLUBS A Lions club can be suspended automatically if it has an outstanding balance of more than US $1,000 or US $20 per member; whichever is less, over 120 days old. A suspended club can be reactivated by paying the outstanding balance in full, or committing to a payment plan and making monthly installment payments. If the club fails to do so, the charter of the club can be canceled automatically.

Suspended clubs can hold meetings to discuss the future of the club and to identify actions to take to regain an active status. However, the clubs cannot be involved in the activities listed above (see):

Each month the association notifies all district governors of which clubs in the district are in suspension, were released from suspension or cancelled. Zone chairpersons can help prevent unnecessary charter cancellations by encouraging suspended clubs to either pay the outstanding balance or negotiate a payment plan with the Finance Division at International Headquarters.

Quite often, non-payment is not exclusively due to lack of funds. There are times when club officers are ill or out of town on business, and fail to make payments on time. Also, complicated international banking systems can delay payments. No matter what the reasons may be, it is the responsibility of each Lions club to pay its per capita dues on time.

One of the most important duties of the zone chairperson is to ensure that all the clubs in the zone are in good status with their accounts at any time of the year. Such special efforts made by the zone chairperson can help clubs in the zone and the zone itself, as well as affect the financial health of the association.

When a club makes a deposit to an LCI banking account, it is necessary that a copy of the deposit slip be sent by fax or email to accountsreceivable@lionsclubs.org so that payment will be credited to their account; include the club name, 6 digit club number, amount to be credited and purpose of payment.

It is important that clubs regularly review the financial statements they receive from LCI to verify that the payments they have made have been received and credited to their account. This can greatly reduce the possibility of being suspended due to problems in properly identifying payments. Starting in the 2011-2012 fiscal year clubs will be able to access their account information online using the WMMR site.

MONTHLY MEMBERSHIP REPORT

The Monthly Membership Report (MMR) is used by every Lions club to report monthly membership changes. The report is submitted to International Headquarters either by mail, fax or online through a membership site on the association's Web site. A password is required to use the membership Web site. Requests for passwords or questions can be directed to wmmr@lionsclubs.org.

The paper report has three identical sheets; the first one to be mailed to the International Headquarters, the second to the district, and the third to be kept in the club's own file.

The paper version of the Monthly Membership Report must be received at International Headquarters by the 20th of the current month.

The electronic version of the Monthly Membership Report (WMMR) must be filed by 12:00am Central Standard Time, by the last day of the current month. A chart of the dates that a report can be filed is shown below:

As a club makes changes to their membership online, these changes occur automatically. Changes can continue to be made during this time as often as they wish. The report is cut off on the last day of each month, and no further changes can be made for that month. They must be included in the next month's report.

PLEASE NOTE: A club cannot file future reports months in advance. If a month's report is missed, the transaction should be included in the next month's paper submission or entered into WMMR.

Either the paper or electronic Monthly Membership Report must be submitted each month even if there are no changes in membership. Full membership lists are not required monthly, but one complete list should be submitted to the Club & Officer Records Administration Department once a year to ensure agreement of club and international records.

It is important that the district governor distributes copies of the membership report to various district officers as needed. The clubs in the district submit only one copy each to the governor for distribution within the district. However, clubs that file online can save their monthly membership reports, and can email the report each month to their zone or region chairperson, district governor, cabinet secretary, or anyone.

District passwords: The district governor team members may request WMMR passwords provided each member has a unique email address in LCI records. If the district governor has entered zone and region definition information as well as chairperson email contact information in the WMMR, then zone and region chairpersons will also be eligible to request a password. In addition, the district has access to 5 courtesy passwords that can be assigned to other officers or chairpersons. District officers can view club officers and members information, and update their district officer records. By using this tool an officer is able to add a new officer, print reports, and designate regions and zones. Additionally, it enables a district officer to download data of members in their district.

Access to Membership Register and the Cumulative Membership reports does not require a password. From the LCI website, select submit Membership reports followed by Lions Officer login. When viewing the login page, click on Membership Reports to access any reports you need. This area also includes a report of clubs who have not reported their club officers.

Clubs can submit other various forms electronically. For more details, please contact the Information Technology Division at International Headquarters at it@lionsclubs.org.
