

PRIVILEGES OF THE BABY LION

As is the custom in our club, our BABY LION is very special and therefore the following rights and privileges are accorded:

1. The BABY LION must wear the prescribed bib at all club meetings, visitations, Cabinet and Zone Meetings or forfeit these privileges.
2. The BABY LION can feed from the King Lion's plate at all functions providing they are properly attired.
3. The BABY LION cannot be fined at our club meetings under any circumstances while wearing their bib.
4. If the BABY LION is fined outside our meeting (while visiting other clubs or functions), the King Lion or if they are absent, then the next senior ranking member of the Board of Directors of our club must pay the fine on their behalf.
5. The BABY LION has the choice of seating at our club meetings.
6. It is the responsibility of all club members to help educate the BABY LION and any club member not able to answer their questions on Lionism correctly will be liable to a fine not exceeding $.25.
7. The BABY LION is free to speak out-of-turn at any of our club meetings for the purpose of obtaining information on Lionism.
8. The BABY LION must only use the special drinking and eating utensils which may be provided them by the club when indulging in food or drink at club meetings.
9. The BABY LION must carry with them at all times during our club meetings their NOISEMAKER so provided them in order to gain attention of club members when they wish to speak. Any Lion who attempts too interrupt the BABY LION while they are speaking is subject to an immediate fine.
